

	Comparison: Budget Vs Premium DJs for your Wedding
	Ultra-Budget Craigslist DJs (under $500)	Super-Budget DJs ($500 to $1300)	Premium DJs (ie Beat Train Productions) $1500 to $2500
Backup Equipment	Probably Not	Maybe	Definitely
Accuracy Playing songs for First Dance and other Formalities	Maybe	Pretty good chance	Definitely #Organizational Savvy
Your DJ is your personal Music Concierge	No	No	Absolutely
Professional Communication (will my emails be promptly responded to?)	Inconsistant	Varies	Definitely
Punctuality	Maybe	Probably	Definitely
Emcee Ethic	Unprepared, mispronounces names, hard to understand, disorganized	Good enough, but inconsistant	Impeccability. Super Prepared. Strong intention to achieve excellence as emcee
Emcee Style	Emcees like a Wrestling Match Announcer	Inconsistant	Graceful, Classy, Articulate
Attire	Inconsistant. Clip on ties and sparkly vests are fair game	Good enough	Impeccable
Music Mixing Skills	Good enough with the occassional "Train Wreck Transition"	Good enough	Impeccable
Song Selection	Generic, Cookie-Cutter, heavy on Cheese	Good enough	Dynamic, Fresh, Custom Tailored to your needs
Intention	Show up and play music	Do a good enough job	Co-create a winning, vibrant, impeccable reception and the best possible outcome #Victory
Flexibility	One size fits all	Good enough	Ultra-Flexible, Ultra-Adaptable; thrilled to create custom tailored playlists
Music Planning Meeting Directly with your DJ beforehand	Maybe	Maybe	Definitely
Music Planning Survey	Probably	Probably	Definitely
Freshness	Stale	Maybe Fresh.	Thoroughly Fresh and Vibrant
Impeccability of Equipment Set-up	Messy, lots of dangling wires	Varies	Impeccable
Customer Service	Lacking and Inconsistant	Varies	Impeccable and Award Winning Source: Beat Train Productions
http://BeatTrainProductions.com			